Neighborhood Council Elections 2014

Acceptable Forms of Documentation

Updated December 11, 2013

*Note: Voters and candidates may be required to show more than one form of documentation to verify eligibility as a stakeholder. Contained in this document are just a sample of some (not all) of the acceptable forms of documentation that candidates and voters may use to establish their stakeholder status. This list will be updated periodically to incorporate any new forms that are deemed acceptable. The City of Los Angeles, Department of Neighborhood Empowerment and the City Clerk have sole discretion on the acceptability of any document presented.

NEIGHBORHOOD COUNCIL ELECTIONS LIST OF ACCEPTABLE FORMS OF DOCUMENTATION

In general, stakeholders must show documentation that substantiates their claimed stakeholder status. The following items will constitute acceptable forms of documentation for establishing stakeholder status. Different categories may require different forms of documentation.

Neighborhood Councils that have chosen the “self-affirmation” method for identifying stakeholders will not require documentation in order to vote.

HOMEOWNER REPRESENTATIVE

The following forms of documentation shall be acceptable proofs of homeownership to run or vote for Homeowner Representative for those Neighborhood Councils that require stakeholders to own residential property within the Neighborhood Council’s boundaries. You will need to show one proof from List A and one proof from List B (document must prove stakeholder status claim), or two from List B. At least one document from List B must prove that you own a residential property within the boundaries of the Neighborhood Council. These documents are marked with an asterisk.

All documentation provided must, to a reasonable extent, show the stakeholder’s name and the address of the residential property in question.

List A
