    - The 90min parking concession on PPD was not accepted by CD4 rep Carolyn Ryu's office

    - Erik clarified that the PPD issue is temporary. He stated that a council motion does not require a formal process...this was in response to residential claim that "closed door meetings" were taking place to discuss the PPD.
    - Residents present were opposed to negotiating a 90min PPD and stated safety, noise pollution and lewd conduct concerns.
    - Resident rep is unwilling to negotiate the 90min piece. Insists that business owners should handle on their own, or buy in to PPD.
    - Residents also cited that photographic evidence proves parking lot is not full.
    - Justin from CD4 updated that DOT will be removing PPD sign by Jeff's store. North side of Belden will be location of metered parking. Also looking at east side of Beachwood by the gates. Will provide DOT map for feedback.
