Chip Clements presented a petition from "Neighbors of the Hollywood Sign" imploring HUNG not to support the implementation of an official Hollywood sign viewing site. The DOT study delay was a spot that everyone agrees is frustrating. HUNC will send a letter urging DOT and the CD4 office to get together about the sign viewing problem

Erik Sanjurjo spoke about the re-districting in our area. He said it sounds like the new district boundaries would be "much better." A motion was made to send a letter to the re-districting committee requesting an extension of our Senate district boundary, south to Hollywood Boulevard.

Motion: Erik Sanjurjo

Second: Robert Abrahamian

Motion Passed:

Yea – 9

Nay – 0

Ziggy Kruse, of the Santa Monica/Western Residents group said the Ad Hoc meeting regarding the ACE ordinance of the City Attorney's office will be held July 25th at 7:30 p.m.

Regarding the LADWP MOU, HUNC needs to give two weeks notice to engage in any vote process or to take a position. Susan Swans asked who could, or could not be available on August 2nd (Tuesday.) The DWP will hold "webinars" on July 20th.

Scott Larson spoke about the HPOZ celebration in regards to Holly Grove's admission. He presented a thank you "Door Knob" trophy to HUNC president Susan Swan.

Lindsay Baguio, from "Hollywood Patch" local news publication introduced herself to the HU NC board

Finance Committee:

Charles Suhayda said we have spent our $4,000 limit on the charge card. There is no petty cash.
